should, first of all, of course, represent good art; next they should be art reproductions, be of superior quality; and finally, they should have the distinction of being unobtainable in any other form—an exclusiveness which especially enhances the interest and value of a gift. It is a matter of general recognition that, meet all these considerations, having received the highest acknowledgments from the leading governments of the world from art museums, and from the most distinguished art fairs. The prices range from $1.25 to $7.50 each print. Special orders only.

THE COPLIN PRINTS

ROOSEVELT

IS HOT
And It Is Intimated That He Thinks of Saving Marines to Rescue Those Kidnapped.

Washington, D. C., June 2.—There is an intimation from semi-official sources that President Roosevelt, through the secretary of state, Mr. Hay, has notified Morocco, England and France that, unless the sultan of Morocco acts speedily and effects the release of the American, Captain American Trooper, presumably a marine, will be landed to rescue Pericaris and execute the bandit. This will be done regardless of the wishes of other European nations, and it is stated assurance have been had that England will back up the United States.
